Dear Dr Lamb

I am writing on behalf of the Prime Minister to thank you for your letter.

I am sorry that you were dissatisfied with this Office's response to your previous letter.

As I am sure you will appreciate, the Prime Minister receives many pieces of correspondence every day and is unable to respond personally to each one. It is for this reason that, when the issue raised falls within the remit of another Government Department, it is passed to that Department to reply on behalf of the Government.

As the matters raised in your previous correspondence fall within the remit of the Department for Education, under the direction of the Secretary of State and her Ministerial team, it was passed to that Department to reply on behalf of the Government. You may therefore wish to consider getting in touch with them, so that they can address your concerns directly.

Should you wish to contact them direct, you can do so at: Department for Education, Ministerial and Public Correspondence Division, Gateway Team, Piccadilly Gate, Store Street, Manchester, M1 2WD.

Thank you, once again, for writing.

Yours sincerely

Correspondence Officer
