Dear Prime Minister,

I have asked you for details of your complaints procedure and you have not complied, or even replied. The procedure is clear on gov uk under complaint about an MP.

Please forward my complaint to the right people:

1. The Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman, Millbank Tower, Millbank, SW1P 4QP, regarding the deliberate non-diagnosis of autism and the abuse of vulnerable children by the system because of it!
2. The House of Commons regarding the deliberate avoidance/cover-up of no investigation into systemic abuse of children in your care.
3. Information Rights and Public Enquiry Team regarding ignoring freedom of information requests over allegations of child abuse.

Technically Mrs May was the first point of contact, so you both need to comply. Please report the General Chiropractic Council and Regulators (1-5) for non-compliance to their complaints' procedure. It would make sense to alert all watchdogs of my complaints.

With the formation of the GCC/Regulator system I have complied with all the protocols, procedures, Code of Conduct, clinical proficiencies and much more. With an honour system I expected the same, or are there truly two sets of rules?

Do not hesitate to request any of the paperwork that you are short of.

Howard Lamb,
DC
