To Sir Mark Rowley.

Dear Sir,

You have had 20 days to supply all paperwork and have had longer to supply details of your complaint's procedures. It is clear what you should have done and have not. As an official complaint regarding you not following your protocols and procedures over allegations of child abuse, you have no option but to put this case to the correct authorities for independent scrutiny.

If you are not willing to investigate, what chance have these children got. If first contact is not made, I will have to write directly to the independent authority. I look forward to a speedy response.

Yours sincerely,
