Subject: Child Abuse cover up IOPC REF 2023/195530

Dear IOPC,

Please find attached my most recent letter to the Prime Minister. By now you should have received all the paperwork back from Sir Miark Rowley's office - the original bundle of my letters, plus numerous communications, leading to complaint and no contact from his office. This is clearly a cover-up to protect the government; after all, you cannot pick and choose which protocols and procedures you stick to. I would have hoped by now to have had the correct dialogue.

I have tried to stay within the rules whilst bringing this complaint as a whistleblower but have seemingly got nowhere, yet the kids still suffer. If needs be I will send the whole bundle to the press and see if they can get me my answers. If covering up child abuse by the system is not within your remit please let me know and I will contact the press.

Yours sincerely,
Howard Lamb
